Re: U.S. v. James Jeffers, Jr., et al.,
Docket No. 2:13-cr-00748-FSH-3

Dear Judge Hochberg:

In response to the Court's inquiry, Defendant James Jeffers, Jr. does not object to the entry of the Protective Order proposed by the Government in the above entitled matter.

This is in part the result of permission received from Charles V. Reilly, Trial Attorney, Antitrust Division, this afternoon, to release all discovery to a recognized ESI management firm, if necessary, to allow myself and my client internet access to specialized software to search, sort and otherwise access the discovery.

Respectfully submitted,

OLEJAR & OLEJAR, LLP
